Annual Dinner 2025

The Lubricant Industry's most prestigious networking event

A first class evening awaits you and your guests

The UKLA Annual Dinner is the highlight of the Lubricant Industry's networking calendar and this year will be held at Sheraton Grand Park Lane; there will be a gala dinner in the Ball Room and an evening of top quality networking, giving you the opportunity to make useful new contacts and renew old acquaintances.

Throughout the evening you will hear about how the United Kingdom Lubricants Association has worked with and for the industry during the year and get the opportunity to listen to our speaker the renowned Ed Byrne.

This is your opportunity to mingle with other like-minded industry executives, make new contacts and enjoy an evening of fine food and company. Bring your clients and prospects and enjoy this prestigious occasion.

We are delighted to announce that our President's Charity for this year is the The Dream Factory and 5% of the ticket revenue will be going towards this excellent cause.

Ed Byrne

Ed Byrne is one of the UK's top live acts, and one of the hardest working. As well as sell-out runs in Edinburgh and the West End, he is also firmly established himself on the international circuit. He regularly performs at Montreal's Just For Laughs and in front of capacity audiences everywhere from Paris to Vegas to Sydney.

Ed's confident, affable conversational delivery charms audiences. His relaxed style disguises a sharp wit, and a mastery of the barbed comment. Whether railing against pop culture or politics, or observing life as a married man and father, Ed wins the crowd with his gentle-natured rants.

Mock the Week's most frequent guest, Ed and his friend Dara O Briain have also travelled around South America in their Big Adventure for BBC Two. As well as appearing on Live at the Apollo, Have I Got News For You, Would I Lie to You?, and a whole host of panel shows, he's also been a regular on the US talk show Late Night with Conan O'Brien.

Ed made his theatrical debut in Brian McAvera's Kings of the Road. He has gone on to play a number of other roles in film and television - though to many he is still remembered as the voice of Carphone Warehouse commercials

President's Charity 2025/6

Charity Number 1123662

The Dream Factory is a UK-based non-profit charity with no government funding that grants dreams for children and young adults with life-limiting or life-threatening conditions, and/or with severe disabilities bringing hope, creating memories.

Set up in 2008 in memory of her son Oliver, who died from leukaemia aged nine. Avril Mills BEM helped to grant a dream for a little boy who wanted to visit a football club. That day, Oliver said, "Mum, when I grow up I want to grant dreams just like you". Sadly, Oliver never got that chance, but the premise for The Dream Factory was founded.

We aim to do everything possible to grant a child's dream, which could be to meet their favourite celebrity, their favourite sporting hero, visit Disneyland for the day, or own a laptop. No dream is too small. All our dreams are made possible with the invaluable help of our fabulous Dream Makers who are all volunteers.

Since 2008, we have granted over 744 dreams in his memory. Please help to keep Oliver's legacy alive.
