President's Charity

Fundraising in aid of the RNLI

On rivers and around the coastline volunteer lifeboat crews at the Royal National Lifeboat Institution stations provide a 24-hour rescue service in the UK and Ireland, and seasonal lifeguards look after people on busy beaches. Flood Rescue Team helps those affected by flooding. To do so, they rely on the safest, most reliable equipment, lifeboats, and modern stations to launch from. From the busiest RNLI station, Tower, on the Thames, to the spectacularly situated St David's in Wales, each lifeboat station is powered by passionate people, and is always ready to rescue. In 2020 we were busier than ever, with staycations and more people heading to the coast. With an average of 24 RNLI lifeboat launches a day, there is most likely a lifeboat crew out right now saving lives.

RNLI crews and lifeguards have saved over 142,700 lives since 1824 but the RNLI are more than a rescue service. They influence, supervise, and educate people too with Community Safety teams who work in local areas to explain the risks and share safety knowledge with anyone going out to sea, rivers or to visit the coast. And our international teams work with like-minded organisations to help tackle drowning in communities at risk all around the world.

RNLI lifeboat launches and lifeguard rescues are powered by you, our generous supporters like the UKLA. Without you, our brave lifeboat volunteers and lifeguards could not save lives. You're behind every life saved and every family reunited. Thank you for making every life we save possible.
